Submission instructions:

1. Submit nomination form by November 1st.
2. Ask others who knew the individual to also send letters telling why they think the nominated horse should be given the Horse of the Year. However, do not flood the committee with similar letters. Try to get letters from people who give other examples of why the nominated horse should be selected. Ask people from other breeds or equine disciplines to send in letters.
3. Send photographs.
4. Send your nomination form and other supporting materials to this address:
